

Who Am I?

V R L E K N F O N E P
E S U B T B E M L E I
U Y J A X A L D O Z G
N O R R A B Q U I P S
T M A N Z Y A C R A N
F R N S H A R K T L M
A M L U W O C F E U C
R W I L T Z D T Y G O
M T Q U A W O L E V C
E I H X C O G P A R K
R M A L T T S E I R P

*My first is in whisky, but never in gin,
My second's left Hamelin with all of his kin.
With her strigine lover, my third's far from shore,
My best friend, named Faithful, makes up number four.
My fifth eats her dinner twice, and twice again,
My sixth's made of iron, she'll leave you in pain.
My seventh's no lady, although of one born,
My eighth has a collar that four could have worn.
At Highbury Corner nine's famous, and so
To your scattered bodies my tenth bids us go.*

*Each played their part in the tortuous tale
Of how I gained shelter from wind, sun, and hail.
Consider them carefully and you'll be given
The name that 'til now I have cunningly hidden.*

This puzzle was written by Grace Barrett for a one-day puzzle hunt run by 'Whisky Or Polio'. The day long event was called 'Girls and Boys Come Out To Play', and was based around some famous nursery rhymes. Many thanks to Grace for letting us show the puzzle to the wider Puzzled Pint audience!

The Bonus puzzles are becoming YOUR puzzles! If YOU have a puzzle that you think would make a good bonus puzzle in future months, let us know! Have a go at setting it yourself – don't worry about the formatting – and send the puzzle along with its solution to gamecontrol@puzzledpint.com, and we'll get in contact with you.

(This is not a clue.)

Puzzle by Grace Barrett (London), edited by Dan P (London)