

Fireys

"Don't lose your head!"

Sarah comes upon a group of Fireys. These mischievous creatures can remove and replace their own heads! The Fireys are doing a dance wherein each throws its head to the next Firey in a clockwise direction, making a new Firey. The bodies stay in place. "Join the dance!" the Fireys cry, grabbing at Sarah's hair. As she flees, they rotate their new heads, which give her a piece of advice.
