

Treat Yo Self!

by Jonah Ostroff (Seattle)

Donna decided to spend Treat Yo Self Day with some lesser-known citizens of Pawnee this year, since Tom (whose favorite things are offal, forests, and attitude) was unavailable. She knew that it was important to start things off correctly, so she began by asking everyone to list a few of their favorite things:

Perd likes:

(Do not cut out the items in this grid!)

Everyone treated themselves to five items from the table on the right. Can you figure out who picked what?

Afterwards, Donna carefully alphabetized each person’s choices, but she still felt a trace of discomfort leaving Tom behind. Drawing on her experiences today, she realized how she felt celebrating Treat Yo Self without her best friend.
