

Find a 9-letter solution for each word clue. Then, pick out the only shared letter they contain. If a pair shares their 4th letter, that is the 4th letter of the answer (see below).

Jon, I never knew how quite to tell you this, but I'm your real father. I left this list for you in hopes that you'd one day find it. I know some of the words may seem like they're not from our world, but trust me when I tell you they will guide you truly. Just find out what each pair has in common and you'll find my true name.

With love, Dad
