

"PUB" TRIV1A - ANSWER KEY

Pseudonym used by authors of The Federalist Papers	PUBLIUS	The fourth prime number	SEVEN
Hugh Howey, E.L. James, Christopher Paolini, Amanda Hocking	SELF-PUBLISHED	Jackie, Tito, Jermaine, Marlon, and Michael	FIVE
Even worse than "unprintable"	UNPUBLISHABLE	Voyager's female Borg was this many of Nine	SEVEN
A restaurant which makes its own beer on the premises	BREW PUB	...can play that game	TWO
In Hollywood, there's no such thing as bad...	PUBLICITY	Boron	FIVE
When a boy becomes a man	PUBERTY	The Prisoner	SIX

The opposite of "macro-reading"	MICRO-PUBLISHING	Babylon, Odyssey, or Johnny	FIVE
If the actor who played Max Headroom opened a restaurant which made its own beer on the premises, that establishment might be called a...	FREW PUB	The loneliest number	ONE

The predominant religion in Westeros worships this many deities	SEVEN
David Fincher's first film with Brad Pitt	SEVEN