Your answer is now your clue. Use it on the vocal part that the rude guitarist transcribed. However, I don't think that's an appropriate food choice for that particular insect... (This puzzle requires note reading. Please see the music tip sheet if nobody in your group can read music.)

The musical score is in 4/4 time. The lyrics are written below the notes. Four groups of notes are circled in red: 1. The first measure of the first line (F, E, E). 2. The second measure of the first line (D). 3. The third measure of the first line (A, B, E, E). 4. The fourth measure of the first line (A, C, A, B, B, A, G, E).

Take the note letter names for the notes connected by a musical slur.

F E E D A B E E

A C A B B A G E

The letters are arranged in two rows. The first row contains the letters F, E, E, D, A, B, E, E. The second row contains the letters A, C, A, B, B, A, G, E. A speech bubble with a musical note and the letter 'Mi' is positioned between the two rows.
