

Great Scott! I'll have to use some four flux capacitors to complete my new "Time Turner" device! But I can't figure out how to stop the components from spinning around when the lab is so cluttered! Time for some spring cleaning...

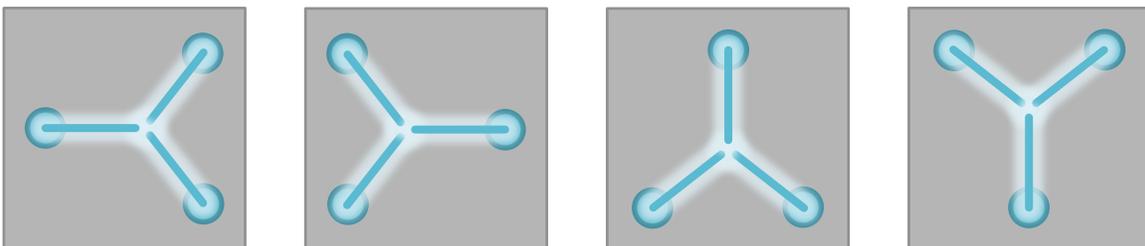

That crazy holistic medicine guy must have dropped this pamphlet on leeches! Into the recycling bin!

"Jesus Friend"? Insufferable Jehovah's Witnesses! Always leaving stuff on the doorstep!

A travel brochure for some lake in the Congo? Why do I need this? Recycle!

A manual for Douglas E. Comer's multitasking computer operating system! I've been looking for this!

*That's better! Now I have some space to sit down and think about this computer password recovery hint...
"No longer Merlin?" What does that mean?*
