

Pat,
 I thought it would be fun to encode where we are going on our honeymoon on our cake.
 Below are the clues that I constructed for our guests, and the top views of the two layers.
 I am thinking the top layer can be on some sort of turntable so that it can spin. What do you think? Or would that be too much of a leading initial clue?

Love you,
 Chris

- — — — attach a label to
- — — — — beer with a bitter flavor and fermented in warm temperatures
- — — — a large cask or keg for beer or wine
- — — — — Legolas is one
- — — — the organ of hearing
- — — — — a distinctive call of a bird or a baby
- — — — what a groom may wear at a wedding
- — — — a driver's compartment
- — — — — nothing or zero
- — — — — belonging to us
- — — — — the highest or uppermost point
- — — — pull hard
- — — — — a green climbing vine
- — — — the tip of a fountain pen
- — — — — action performed by participants of a race
- — — — number of years of life

BOTTOM LAYER

TOP LAYER