

Puzzled Pint

November 2014

The Great Pyramid

When I finally excavated the fourth face, a giant cat pounced on me. I'd heard about the riddles it told, but hoped never to meet it. The cat told me to look at the logic of each side I had excavated, that not even Caesar could shift enough sand to find this pyramid, and that I needed to keep my focus whilst moving around.

Sadly I couldn't solve the puzzle – what happened next?

Page 1 of 2

Puzzle by Dan P (London)

Puzzled Pint

November 2014

The Great Pyramid

Page 2 of 2

Puzzle by Dan P (London)