

BONUS: MY CABBAGES!

JANUARY 2022

Gan-Lan the cabbage merchant has traveled to many places within the world of Avatar. However, during every stop of his journey, he has been met with nothing but trouble. Different people destroyed his cabbages in all five of his destinations! Chart out Gan-Lan's unlucky travels and determine the perpetrator of cabbage destruction in each location. Then, use what you've gleaned to figure out something else that Gan-Lan could sell instead.

- In Wan Shi Tong's library, the Knowledge Seekers ambushed me and ate many of my precious cabbages.
- After the disaster at Ba Sing Se, I decided to go straight to Lake Laogai for a vacation.
- The trip started out badly when a boy named Sokka fell on top of my precious cabbages at my very first location.
- I did not meet Sokka in Full Moon Bay.
- The Avatar may be destined to save this world, but his careless airbending blew my cart into Lake Laogai!
- In the location immediately after the one where guards decimated my cabbages, Iroh incinerated them.
- After Full Moon Bay, I did not go directly to Wan Shin Tong's library.
- My third destination was Ba Sing Se.
