

The Cliffs of Insanity

Westley scrambled up the cliff. You have to unscramble up it. To get to the Guilder frontier — or just to the Puzzled Pint location for May 13th, 2014 — take the synonyms for insanity (that have themselves gone insane) at the bottom of the page and straighten them out. Then enter them into the appropriate blanks and append the resulting message, found in the circles, to the following URL to get the location details for your city: http://puzzledpint.com/puzzles/may_2014/cliffs/_____
