

Portland Food Cart Tour

Portland is famous for its amazing food carts. The food cart tour is great for getting a taste of what the city has to offer. Can you figure out what order the tour goes in? Maybe you'll find that Portland's food carts serve cuisine that is truly _____.

- The tour begins and ends with at least two downtown carts. The three carts that are not located downtown are visited consecutively.
- The tour grabs delicious Georgian cheese bread at Kargi Gogo immediately after getting chicken and rice at Nong's Khao Man Gai.
- The tour stops by Wolf and Bear to get a labneh wrap at some point before visiting Small Pharaoh's to sample the falafel over rice. The tour goes to Small Pharaoh's some time before heading to Aybla Mediterranean to try the gyro meat. The group visits Small Pharaoh's immediately after visiting Kargi Gogo.
- While on the tour, you will sample delectable homemade tortillas at Taqueria Los Arcos at some point after getting a juicy stuffed burger at Smak Dab's. The tour stops by Smak Dab's exactly three stops after Nong's Khao Man Gai.
- The tour heads to Huong's Vietnamese to sample the pho exactly three stops after trying a solar power-cooked waffle at Solar Waffle Works.
